"Renovo have become one of the most consistent suppliers into our global finance operation. They stand out from the crowd by providing candidates who have clearly been sourced through proactive work to identify a specific skillset. I've always appreciated the honesty and transparency with which they have operated, making the recruitment process itself as un-painful as it can be!"

Financial Controller, EMEA, Global Banking Group

"I can highly recommend working with Renovo and their specialist Finance recruitment team. We have had some very tricky, hybrid roles to fill this year to develop our 'best in class' provision, and Renovo have really risen to the challenge of finding some genuine talent to support this."
